

ENRICHMENT ACTIVITIES FOR STUDENTS

Some of you have requested additional enrichment activities for your students during these quarantine days. Below are some ideas for ways to expand your student's education while studying at home. These are just for fun and are not required.

Rosetta Stone is free for students for the next three months. Simply sign up using an email account and input Grace Christian School as your child's school.

rightnow MEDIA

Rightnow Media is free to Grace students and their families. They offer a wide range of Bible studies for all age groups, video series for kids and worship videos too. Access Rightnow Media through the Grace custom url: <https://www.rightnowmedia.org/account/invite/GRACESCHOOL>

Take a Virtual Field Trip - No permission slip necessary. Here are some ideas:

Book a "Quarantine Princess Video Chat." The video chat will include storytime and games! Choose from the Snow Queen, Rapunzel, or Cinderella. Princess Ellen Thweatt is a graduate of Grace Christian School and was a member of Grace Lutheran Church growing up. She now lives in Nashville, TN where she graduated with a double major in voice and composition, and she is pursuing her music career. Here are links to her "Quarantine Princess Video Chat" sites:

Create a Time Capsule

From the creator: This is something I designed for fellow families with children living through this difficult time, it is meant as a GIFT not for profit! However should you wish and are able to, please consider donating to a local charity or passing on a random act of kindness within your community. Choose KINDNESS, Natalie Long xoxo
